Greeting of the organizers

Welcome to the annual BCSR Conference, this time in THE LÄND! We're thrilled to have you here and look forward to the next four days of exciting workshops and inspiring keynotes.

This is your chance to expand your knowledge, connect with like-minded space enthusiasts and engage in thought-provoking discussions.

Take advantage of the opportunities that this conference has to offer and make the most of your time here in Stuttgart. We hope you leave feeling motivated and inspired to continue pushing the boundaries of student space projects. Let's blast off into the future together. We hope you leave feeling motivated and inspired to pursue your passion.

Have a great time at the conference!
